“Love God. Love Others”

Scripture: John 13: 31-35

Hello Children of God! I have a question for you: Why do you think your parents have rules for you to follow? Because they love you? Yes! Because they know what's best for you? Yes! Well, God's rules for us are also because He loves us and knows what's best for us! We heard in today's Gospel reading Jesus telling his followers something very important. He called these followers "little children" reminding the people, and us, that we are all children of God!

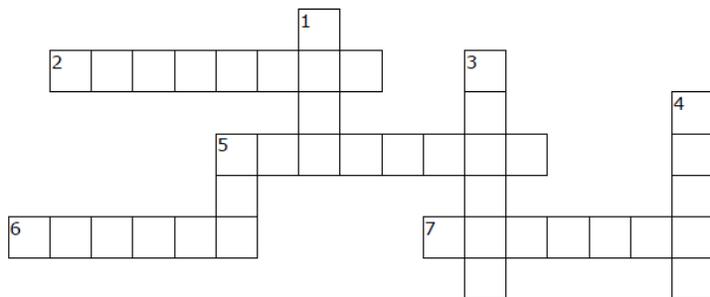

Jesus told them, "Just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another." In fact, He said that is how other people will know that we are followers of Jesus—by our love for one another! Does that mean it's always easy to love others? What about people who don't treat us with kindness? What about when our brother or sister makes us angry? In this case, following God's rule to love others can be hard, just like following your parent's rules sometimes feels hard. If, when it gets hard, we remember that we are all God's children, and how much He loves all of us, it certainly makes it easier. And we can pray to God to send His Holy Spirit to help to help us show that same love to others, and to follow Jesus' example of how to treat other people. ☺

Ms. KB's Super Sunday question: What is another word for God's rules?
(The answer is in Bold print somewhere in this bulletin!)
