"The Greatest Treasure"

Scripture: Luke 12: 13-21

What comes to your mind when you think of the word "treasure?" Is it a treasure chest overflowing with gold, jewelry, and precious gems? Or is it something you own, or wish you owned like the newest xbox, or video game? Maybe it's something really special to you like a favorite stuffed animal or a toy. Well, while these things are nice to have, Jesus warns us in today's Gospel reading that these things are not what should be most important to us. In fact, the real treasures in life aren't even things we can hold in our hand- treasures like love, friendship, and most importantly, Jesus. Sometimes we can get so focused on getting the treasures we want, that we forget we already have the greatest treasure of all- the never ending love of our Savior Jesus Christ, His forgiveness, and a promise of everlasting life.

We can pray: "Thank you, God, for giving us the greatest treasure of all, your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen."
